No. 3678-X.—The following Rules for Ladies held by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General at Calcutta and Simla are published for general information:—

I.—The following are entitled to attend His Excellency the Viceroy's Ladies:—
All gentlemen, whether European or Indian, who have been presented at the Court of St. James, or at the Viceroyal Court.

II.—The following ladies also are eligible for presentation at His Excellency's Ladies, whether European or Indian:—

- (a) All Relief Chiefs.
- (b) All Commissioned Officers in Naval, Military (British and Indian) and Marine Services.
- (c) All Uncommissioned Officers of the first class in Naval or Army employ.
- (d) All gentlemen who have received titles of honour from His Majesty the King-Emperor, or His Excellency the Viceroy.

III.—Gentlemen, whether European or Indian, who have not already been presented at the Court of St. James, or at the Viceroyal Court, and who desire to be presented at His Excellency's Ladies, must submit their applications through the gentlemen proposing to present them. In the case of all Government officials or gentlemen engaged in business the proposer should ordinarily be the Head of the Department or Firm.

These applications should reach the Military Secretary's Office at least a fortnight before the date announced for the Ladies.

The names will then be submitted to His Excellency, when, if approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

IV.—Applications for permission to be presented, submitted by non-official gentlemen, whether European or Indian, will, as a general rule, be referred to Local Authorities by the Military Secretary to the Viceroy. Only those who are declared eligible as a result of their social status will be permitted to attend.

V.—Gentlemen who are entitled ex-officio to attend Provincial Durbars or who are officers of Talukdars may be presented at His Excellency the Viceroy's Ladies by Heads of these Departments or Commanding Officers. This will not confer upon them the privilege of attending Ladies when they have ceased to hold the position which made them eligible for presentation, nor will it enable them to present other gentlemen. Talukdar officers, who have accepted their commissions, may obtain from the Military Secretary to the Viceroy special permission to attend Ladies.

Gentlemen who present others must themselves attend the Ladies.

VI.—Dress—(a) Civil and Military Officers—Ladies Dress (Ladies will not be taken to the Ladies).

(b) Civilians being University Graduates and other gentlemen entitled to wear robes or gowns as a mark of Judicial or Academic office or status, and not entitled to wear uniforms, will appear in such robes or gowns.

(c) Gentlemen not entitled to wear uniforms, or robes or gowns, will appear in Evening Dress.

(d) Indian gentlemen who do not appear in the dress prescribed above will wear Chogas, Akhs or Jalbes and Chupans, Chutias, Bangas or Kotas with turbans and their distinctive National head dress, or the ceremonial dress approved for their class by the Local Government.

(e) In the case of Bengali gentlemen the head dress should be a Turban generally known as Phanda or Moukatta, and not a binda cap.

(f) In the case of Burmese gentlemen, the head dress should be a white slit, the hair being dressed in a top knot.

(g) Indian gentlemen who do not appear in the dress prescribed in (c), (d) or (e) should not remove their head dress when they pass His Excellency.

At the Viceroyal Court, only patent leather shoes, or shoes of an English pattern, are allowed to be worn, except in the case of Indian Military Officers, who wear the particular style of boot or shoe which forms part of their uniform.
